Mr D. M. Foy.

Dear Sir :

About a week ago
I wrote you, asking you to send me two $3.00 gold pieces which I understood I could get from you - The letter contained a New York draft for $7.50 - ~~And~~ I am very anxious to have the coins by the middle of next week - thought I would write again as I knew there was a bare possibility of my letter having gone astray. If it is not asking too much, would you please let me know at your earliest convenience whether you rec'd. my letter and can let me have the coins.

Hastily
